

The most splendid of ways to float into hammock bliss:

With its magnificently sweeping lines, this stand adds the finishing touch to any garden design. Made of durable larch wood with stainless steel fittings, Arcus is a secure ocean of peace to embark in your hammock on a journey into dream world. An oil-based protective surface coating gives the larch wood a wonderful, warm sheen.

The especially developed chain suspension can be adjusted to fit to different AMAZONAS hammocks.

AMAZONAS uses FSC[™]-certified wood from sustainable European state forests for the manufacture of their products.
